

Nationwide® Privacy Statement

Thank you for choosing Nationwide

Our privacy statement explains how we collect, use, share, and protect your personal information. So just how do we protect your privacy? In a nutshell, we respect your right to privacy and promise to treat your personal information responsibly. It's as simple as that. Here's how.

Confidentiality and security

We follow all data security laws. We protect your information by using physical, technical, and procedural safeguards. We limit access to your information to those who need it to do their jobs. Our business partners are legally bound to use your information for permissible purposes.

Collecting and using your personal information

We collect information about you when you ask about or buy one of our products or services. The information comes from your application, business transactions with us, consumer reports, and publicly available sources. Please know that we only use that information to sell, service, or market products to you.

We may collect the following types of information:

- Name, address, and Social Security number
- Assets and income
- Property address and value
- Account and policy information
- Credit reports and other consumer report information
- Family member and beneficiary information
- Public information

Sharing your information for business purposes

We share your information with other Nationwide companies and business partners. When you buy a product, we may share your personal information for everyday business purposes. Some examples include mailing your statements or processing transactions that you request. You cannot opt out of these. We also share your information with your agent or producer. They use your personal information to manage your policy or account. We may also share your personal information as federal and state law requires.

Sharing your information for marketing purposes

We don't sell your information to anyone – period. We may share your personal information with Nationwide companies or business partners to market products to you. We have joint marketing agreements with our business partners. This means that we have partnered with them to offer you a product that might interest you. They may use your personal information to market their products. If you would like to learn more about opting out, please read the next section.

Opting Out

You can ask us not to share your personal information with the Nationwide family of companies listed below or our business partners to market products to you. Just remember, Nationwide offers many different types of products and services. If you would like to learn about these products from one of our companies, you may not want to opt out. You can opt out of sharing with other Nationwide affiliates and sharing with third parties.

To opt out of sharing for marketing purposes, please call us toll free at 1-866-280-1809. You may opt out at any time and your request will take effect in 30 days. An opt out request from one joint customer will apply to all joint customers on the policy or account. If you have already opted out, you don't need to opt out again because your request will never expire.

We will not share the personal information of Vermont customers with the Nationwide family of companies or third parties for marketing purposes without your consent.

Using your medical information

We sometimes collect medical information. We may use this medical information for a product or service you're interested in, to pay a claim, or to provide a service. We may share this medical information for these business purposes if required or permitted by law. But we won't use it for marketing purposes unless you give us permission.

Accessing your information

You can always ask us for a copy of your personal information. Please send your privacy inquiry to the address below and have your signature notarized. This is for your protection so we may prove your identity. We don't charge a fee for giving you a copy of your information now, but we may charge a small fee in the future.

You can change your personal information at MyNationwide.com or by calling your agent. But we can't update information that other companies, like credit agencies, provide to us. So you'll need to contact these other companies to change and correct your information.

Send your privacy inquiries to the address below. Please include your name, address, and policy number. If you know it, include your agent's name and number.
